

WHAT IS ATMOSPHERIC PERSPECTIVE?

Atmospheric perspective (also called aerial perspective) refers to the effect the atmosphere (or space) has on objects, especially landscapes when viewed from a distance. Objects usually appear to have diminished contrast, neutralized color, lightened value, and decreased detail when viewed from far away.

