USING WATERCOLOR

Fill a water dish half full with water.

Activate the colors (add a drop or two of water to each paint pan with a brush).

Add additional water to the color you want to use, then bring the brush to the paper.

Use the brush to gently apply the paint to the paper.

If white paper starts to show through, apply more water and paint.

theartofeducation.edu